Obituary

Christopher Sebastian Burton, Jr. was born in San Francisco, CA on May 27, 1968 to both the late Christopher Sebastian Burton, Sr, and Diane Burton. His grandparents, both the late Dezebee Miles, Sr and Alice Miles shared in devotion to his upbringing in Christian values and principles. At an early age, Chris was united at Olivet Missionary Baptist church in San Francisco, CA where he accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior. He had a fearless conviction that God would take care of him in any circumstance or challenge he encountered. Because of his faith, Chris had a zeal for life and for the people he always helped.

Chris attended the same schools, McKinney Elementary and Everett Middle, as his mother, and was known as "Chilly C". While at Mission High School, Chris was the 'star' football player because he could play both offense and defensive positions on the team. Chris' ability overflowed with talent.

Chris was filled with creativity, and his mind was always focused on amazing ideas he wanted to accomplish, and was known for his fun-loving and comedic nature. He always had a positive outlook in life. He never gave up. As an innovator and entrepreneur at heart, Chris invented a multi-purpose pack and started his own non-profit business called, Wee City, which was recognized by the mayor of San Francisco, CA.

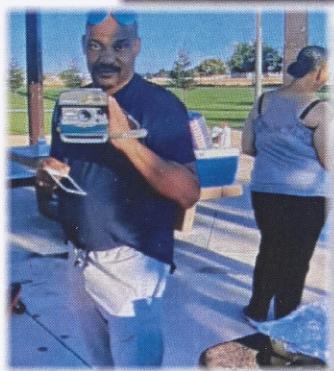

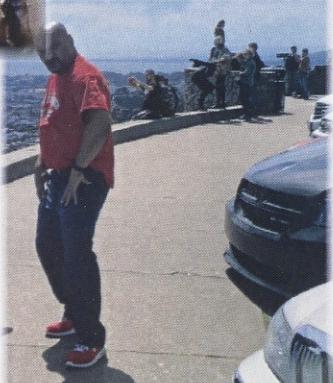

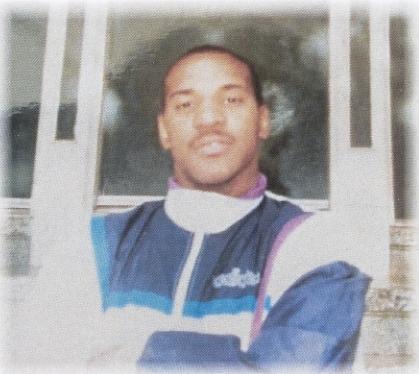

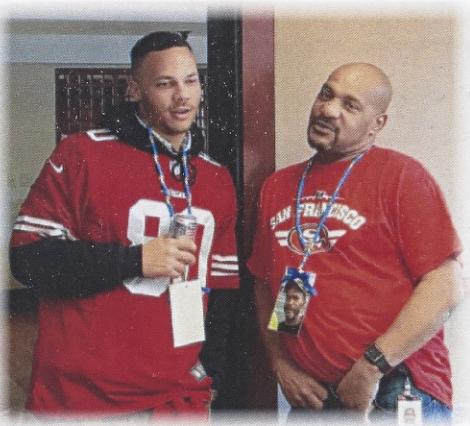

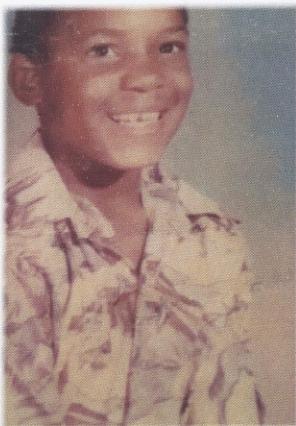

As the eldest of all his siblings, Chris was a protector and provider not only to his immediate family and friends, but also to those he didn't know. Chris was working hard because of his love of family and people. If there was any cash to be made, Chris kept it real and always wanted to keep the money in the 'family.'

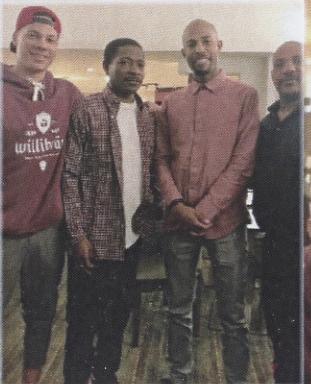

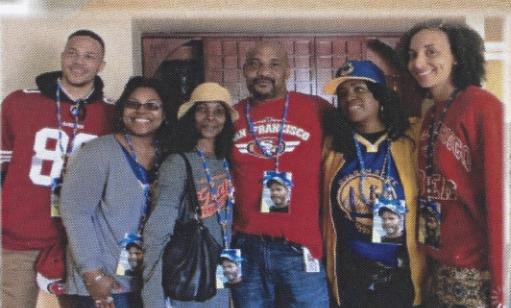

Christopher entered into eternal rest on November 8, 2019 and was preceded by his parents, and grandparents. He leaves to mourn the love of his life of more than thirty years, Lori Nalls; his heart, soul and amazing daughter, Alana Burton; children he loved and raised, Celina Jordan and Andrew Jordan; and grandson, Cameron Coleman; his brother Niles Burton; sister Angelique Burton; sister, Aungelique Addison (Sean); sister, Lexi English (Ronald); brother, Lee Bonner Jr.; brother, Adam Aldred, sister Cali Burton; brother, Cori Burton; two aunts; five uncles; five nephews; four nieces; two great nephews and a host of relatives and friends.

Saying Goodbye To Our Brother

The day you left,
was a day no one expected.

That day was very hectic.

No one could understand why.

No chance to even say goodbye.

But deep inside we know that you are okay.
I still remember your goofy laugh till this day.
No matter what people have to say about you,
we know all the good things you used to do.

This is our goodbye letter,
letting you know that we miss you, and love you.
And things will NEVER be the same without you.

Your Sister

Chris: A Lover of Mankind

By Jackie Lewis

Your trust in God empowered us all,
Your faith was immovable because you knew your Lord and Savior to call
You shared love with family and friends that would overfill a hall,
You lit the way to prevent many from a fall.

Folks knew you as 'Chilly C' at school, and they knew your talent and stardom,
You were fun-loving, energetic, and your comedic spirit was cool
But your love for your gal and a daughter who was just like you,
Was the sleeve of your true passion that you wore your heart on.

We knew the secret that strangers did not know,
Your love would protect, guide, and watch over us,
You often reach out your hand to pull others out of the snow.
You were a man of men who didn't worry or fuss.

Your zeal for life motivated and inspired one another,
Your 'Wee City' honor got you noticed
Your innovative spirit would take you farther
Your life shown that starry zest,
We knew you were the best!

So rest our love, Gods hands have carried many
As you close your eyes to rest, we will miss you dearly,
We champion your life, your armor, your shield,
You became an example to mankind whose shoes cannot be filled.
